

North Wales Safeguarding Adults Board

Key Messages

From the Meeting held on Thursday 15th March 2021

- Board held a minute's silence and paid tribute to Christopher Pearson (BCUHB) and Mark Jones, (WCBC), colleagues held in high esteem by all. Chair highlighted their outstanding contribution to the safeguarding arena and their dedication to protecting those who were vulnerable and all agreed they will be sadly missed.
- An update was received by the Board from all agencies in regards to the ongoing safeguarding activity during the Covid-19 pandemic, discussing issues and themes arising, together with discussions around suitability and compatibility of the IT platforms currently being used.
- The North Wales Safeguarding Boards Strategic Business Plan will be published on the NWSB website by 31st March 2021 in accordance with deadlines set out in The Safeguarding Boards (Functions and Procedures) (Wales) Regulations 2015.
- It was noted that the inquests in relation to Operation Jasmine had been concluded. A reminder of the recommendations from the subsequent review by Dr Margaret Flynn 'In Search of Accountability' would be posted on the NWSB website.
